2: Colossians 1: 15-20

3: Luke 10: 25-37

Liturgy of the Word - Meditation:

In the first reading, Moses calls on the people to heed the voice of God written in their hearts. The second reading reminds us of Christ Jesus as the image of the invisible God, through Whom all things were created and Who made peace by the blood of His cross. In the Gospel, Jesus points to the Good Samaritan, with his unselfish works of mercy, as an example of a good neighbor.

Focus: God's commandments are written in our hearts.

Today we are challenged to love God with our entire being and our neighbor as ourselves. On the face of it, these are difficult commandments to live out day after day, but Moses reminds us that they are written in our hearts. Our task is to listen to God's word and carry it out at each moment, in each situation we face.

Sanctuary Light

The sanctuary light burns in memory of Elizabeth Hisnanick & Anna Batovsky July 7 through July 20 as requested by Eleanor Farina and Mary Beth and Henry Mazur.

The sanctuary candle will burn in memory of the victims of the Virginia Beach shooting starting July 21st through August 3rd as requested by the Myers Family.

Pope Francis—thought for the day (July 14)

The more we are rooted in Christ, the more we are alive and fruitful.

Jesus tells us to spread His message of mercy. How do we go about doing this? Here are three steps any of us can take:

1. Examine your Attitude: Look for ways you stand in judgement over those caught up in destructive or sinful behavior. Remember that you are a sinner who has been saved by God's mercy. People can sense when someone is harboring harsh and judgmental feelings against them.
2. Look Outward: Strike up a conversation with the stranger behind you in line. Get to know your neighbor who has been away from church. Let unexpected friendships develop; you will share your faith without even trying too hard.
3. Keep Receiving Mercy: Don't stop praying. Let His heart of mercy continue to soften your heart. Let His openness to everyone, rich and poor, healthy and ailing, successful and struggling, move you to the same kind of openness.

The Word Among Us—July
