14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1: Isaiah 66: 10-14c

2: Galatians 6: 14-18

3: Luke 10: 1-12, 17-20

Liturgy of the Word - Meditation:

The prophet Isaiah instructs us to rejoice because the Lord assures us He will extend prosperity and comfort. In Paul’s letter to the Galatians, he writes that the cross of Jesus Christ has brought about a new creation, one which will bring peace and mercy to those who follow Him. Luke’s Gospel tells of Christ appointing and sending seventy-two followers out in pairs—like lambs among wolves—with instructions on how to labor in the field and proclaim the kingdom of God.

Focus: The Lord sends laborers to proclaim the kingdom.

Jesus appointed, instructed, and sent seventy-two disciples to proclaim the kingdom of God. With His authority, they were able to spread the Gospel message, and it continues today.

For we, too, are called, appointed, instructed, and sent with authority. We are sent to engage the world and proclaim the kingdom. Like the early disciples, we are not sent alone: we have the Church as mother, and each other as co-travelers on the journey.

Sacrament of the Sick

The Sacrament of the Sick will be administered following the 11:00 AM Mass next Sunday, July 14, 2019. Anyone who is ill or feels in need of the sacrament is kindly asked to remain after Mass. Father will come back into the church as soon as possible.

Pope Francis—thought for the day (July 7)

God knows better than we do about what we need. We must have faith, because His ways are different from ours.

The Greatest Gifts Of All

The greatest gifts of all are the memories we create each and every day, moment to moment as we interact with those we love. These are the gifts that make a difference in our lives and truly last a lifetime! Although they are precious, they are not made of gold, silver or diamonds. Although they are free, they are worth more than all the gifts money can buy.

Memories such as this are made of: Gratitude, Intimate Moments, Forgiveness, Time and Sharing Self.

The single most powerful tool for creating more of what you want in life and love is to express gratitude and appreciation for what you already have. A smile, a hug, a touch, a kind word are intimate moments that say "you're special to me and I love you!"

Readily and sincerely forgiving someone means treating him/her as forgiven. Spend time together being totally present during that time—body, mind and spirit. Sharing self—talk about who you are, what you think and feel, your dreams, hopes, sorrows and joys. These are the greatest gifts of all!
