13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1: 1 Kings 19: 16b, 19-21

2: Galatians 5: 1, 13-18

3: Luke 9: 51-62

Liturgy of the Word - Meditation:

In the reading from the First Book of Kings, the Lord tells Elijah to find Elisha and anoint him as prophet to succeed [him]. Elisha, though he wants to wait until he can say goodbye to his parents, nevertheless slaughters his oxen and follows. In the second reading, Paul writes to the Galatians about the freedom that Christ came to bring us which, if we live by the Spirit, allows us to not be controlled by the desires of the flesh. In the Gospel, Jesus is making His final journey to Jerusalem, and tells those who want to follow Him that they must do so without delay.

Focus: Jesus summons us to Him and then sends us out as messengers to proclaim His kingdom.

The Christian life is one of following the way of Christ. Jesus calls us out of our worldliness, out of our habits and attachments, to follow His way. And after we encounter the Lord, He sends us out to proclaim the truth of His kingdom.

Can you not watch one hour with Me?

Friday, July 5th is first Friday. Adoration will follow the 8:30 Mass, concluding with Benediction at noon.

Jesus will bless you, your family, and the whole world for this hour of faith you spend with Him in the Blessed Sacrament.

Pope Francis—thought for the day (June 30)

We call on all people of faith and good will to take action and oppose modern slavery in all its forms.

True Freedom

Dear Lord, we misunderstand freedom believing that it is the ability to do whatever we want.

Help us always to remember that freedom, true freedom, is being able to do what we ought to do.

That freedom, true freedom, is not indulging our every want and whim, but instead is the ability to rise above any desires that are wrong, disordered, dangerous or excessive.

Give us the grace always to remember that true freedom makes us the people you wish us to be, that true freedom brings us closer to you, and reshapes our world in the likeness of your kingdom. Amen.
