Liturgy of the Word - Meditation:

In the first reading, a letter from the Church in Jerusalem is delivered to the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. In it they are assured that they are under no burdens of the Mosaic law. Revelation gives us a vision of splendor: the holy city Jerusalem. Jesus, in the Gospel, tells His disciples that he and the Father will dwell within those who love Him and keep His word. He also promises to send the Holy Spirit as an Advocate.

Focus: The Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what Jesus taught.

Jesus assures us in the Gospel that He will dwell within us, and the Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what He taught. This is good news for us, because it means we are not making this Christian journey alone, two thousand years removed from a period in time. We are today, like the early Church of Jerusalem, taught and guided by the Spirit. We need only to listen and have faith in His working in us.

Pope Francis—thought for the day (May 26)

Let us not be distracted by the false wisdom of this world, but to follow Jesus as the one sure guide who gives meaning to our life.

Hear Our Prayer This Day

In the quiet sanctuaries of our own hearts, let each of us name and call on the One whose power over us is great and gentle, firm and forgiving, holy and healing ...

You who created us,
who sustain us,
who call us to live in peace,
hear our prayer this day.

Hear our prayer for all who have died,
whose hearts and hopes are known to you alone ...

Hear our prayer for those who put the welfare of others
ahead of their own
and give us hearts as generous as theirs ...

Hear our prayer for those who gave their lives
in the service of others,
and accept the gift of their sacrifice ...

Help us to shape and make a world
where we will lay down the arms of war
and turn our swords into ploughshares
for a harvest of justice and peace ...

Comfort those who grieve the loss of their loved ones
and let your healing be the hope in our hearts...

Hear our prayer this day
and in your mercy answer us
in the name of all that is holy.

The peace of God be with you .

- Austin Fleming
